The Hiring Committee
Holocaust Survivor Memoirs Program
The Azrieli Foundation
Toronto, Ontario

Dear Members of the Hiring Committee,

Please accept my application for the educator role on the Holocaust Survivor Memoirs Program team. I have taught in Ontario classrooms for over a decade, with expertise in Universal Design for Learning and differentiated instruction across multiple grade levels and subject areas. I currently work as a technology consultant and advisor to Ontario school boards. My academic background is in Political Science, and I taught for two years in Israel as part of my ongoing involvement in Jewish education. The enclosed lesson sample, a 60-minute Grade 6 close reading of the Becoming Ilona passage from Tenuous Threads, is the work I would point to first.

One thing I want to say plainly because it shapes the way I read this work. I am the grandchild of a Holocaust survivor. The work of carrying survivor memory forward is both professional and personal for me.

I chose Tenuous Threads and the Becoming Ilona passage on purpose. Ontario's September 2023 Social Studies revision added two new Grade 6 expectations: A3.7 on Jewish communities in Canada and the impact of antisemitism, and B3.5 on Canadian government responses to the Holocaust. Judy Abrams' memoir is the lived experience those expectations are designed to teach. The lesson I built is single-period, single-passage, IHRA-aligned, and trauma-informed. It complements the Foundation's existing six-lesson Hidden Children program and four-part Judy Abrams Activity rather than duplicating them. It is the close-reading sibling of the survey resources teachers already have from you.

I would welcome the chance to discuss how my background in classroom teaching and curriculum design might serve the Foundation's mission. Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Brandon Gluck
